

Paleis Hotel

DOG POLICY

Dogs are welcome to stay at the Paleis Hotel. We have a few rules to ensure that you, your dog and our other guests enjoy their stay. Our staff is authorized to take measures if the rules below are not observed.

-  Dogs are only allowed on request. Please inform us if you are bringing your dog with you and state the breed and size of the dog. We will process your request as soon as possible. If the dog has not been registered in advance, access may be denied.
-  Only one dog is allowed per room. If more than one dog is brought along, an extra room will have to be booked
-  The pet fee is € 19,50 per night. Guide Dogs and Assistance Dogs may stay free of charge.
-  Small and medium-sized dogs are allowed with a maximum height of 40 cm.
-  Dogs are only permitted on the first floor of the hotel in the Deluxe and Superior rooms. Dogs are not allowed to stay in an Executive room.
-  The hotel provides all dogs with a blanket and a small treat. The hotel does not provide dog beds or food and water bowls.
-  Dogs may not be left alone in the room.
-  Dogs must be kept on leads in the corridors, stairwells and public areas in the hotel.
-  We politely ask you to keep your dog off the beds and furniture at all times.
-  Our housekeeping staff is obligated to do a daily cleaning in the room. Discuss with the reception about desired times.
-  Owners will be liable for any damage caused by their pet.
-  Please be respectful to other hotel guests. Not everyone will share the same love for dogs as you, so please keep them under control and do not let them approach others without an invitation.
-  There is a park across the street where dogs are allowed to run free. Ask the reception for the route.
-  Animals other than dogs are not allowed.
-  When you arrive in our hotel with your dog but without having requested permission for it in advance, a €100 deposit will be charged.
